BACKLOT BIJOU
Ignore the stock costumes, stock sets and stock props and just enjoy these fun western adventure movies.

BEVERLY HILLBILLIES
The popular sitcom about a poor backwoods family who find themselves in alien world after striking oil --- the world of Beverly Hills, California.

THE BIG PICTURE
Originally produced by the United States Army, these films (which have been specially edited for Channel Pittsburgh), document the history of America's armed forces.

BILLY THE KID
This entertaining series uses matinee movies of the 1940s that tell a romanticized, fictional version of legendary outlaw William "Billy the Kid" Bonney (1860-1881) by casting him as an underground hero.

BONANZA
Dignified yet engaging actor Lorne Greene (1915-1987) stars as the much-married patriarch of a prominent ranching family in 1860s Nevada.

THE BOYS
The guys who made America laugh in TV's early days continue to generate smiles in this custom-made series comprising of specially edited episodes of their popular sitcoms.

CRIME SCENE
Join two of early television's most stylish and clever private investigators --- Mike Barnett and Martin Kane --- as the solve crimes that no one else can in this custom-made series.

FOUR STAR PLAYHOUSE
Some of Hollywood's biggest stars take on a variety of roles in this entertaining anthology of comedies, dramas and crime tales --- all specially edited for Channel Pittsburgh.

GENERAL AUDIENCES
This custom-made series features classic trailers and shorts (deemed "suitable for all general audiences") promoting films from nearly a century of cinema.

HEROES OF THE OLD WEST
Enjoy rotating tales of adventures starring a trio of Old West heroes --- including a fictional version of sharpshooter Annie Oakley (1860-1926) --- in a custom-made series comprised of rousing TV films of the 1950s.

HOME ON THE RANGE
This custom-made series features fun adaptations of early cinematic adventures of western heroes Woodward "Tex" Ritter (1905-1974) and John Wayne (1907-1979).

I MARRIED JOAN
A veteran of vaudeville, film and radio, actress Joan Davis (1907-1961) is a delight as the scatterbrained wife of a community judge played by Jim Backus (1913-1989).

LUX RADIO THEATER
Drawn from Radio's Golden Age are these star-studded adaptations of some of the greatest movies ever made.

MATINEE MOVIE
Relive the era when Hollywood's movie-making machine was being polished and churning out huge numbers of films each week. These movies, all released in the 1930s, reflect a time of incredible turmoil that included the first talking pictures, the Great Depression, the introduction of the remake (as well as genres such as the monster movie and the musical) and censorship issues.

MORNING MUSIC SHOW
Develop an awareness and appreciation of early 20th century American music as performed by the artists who made them classics.

MR. & MRS. NORTH
The creation of writers Frances Davis Lockridge (1896-1963) and her husband, Richard Lockridge (1898-1982), this light mystery series follows amateur sleuths --- and happily married couple --- Jerry and Pam North.
