9:00pm Jack Benny

Laughs are everywhere when Jack and Rochester's planned vacation to Palm Springs falls flat in more ways than one. Eddie "Rochester" Anderson (1905-1977) was one of the leading comic actors of his generation. His most famous role, as comedian Jack Benny's butler, was written as a character smart enough to hold his own with his "Boss" thus defying many common racist stereotypes. He was the second highest paid member of "The Jack Benny Program" cast (after Benny himself) and the highest paid African-American actor of the era.
